Board Announcements:

Chairman Hendricks announced that Andrew Hardin would be the board's representative on Frisco's Tax Increment Reinvestment Zone (TIRZ), replacing Mr. Sam Roach who served in that capacity when he was on the Board of Trustees of Collin College District.

President Israel announced the following:

1. Thank you to the Board of Trustees for spending their entire day and evening doing the work of the college. Dr. Israel said the board gave him some challenges to accomplish in the next month or two and he will be bringing recommendations back to the board for discussion. The board held a very productive retreat/work session where it discussed the budget, SACS, policies, strategic planning, and other subjects. He is very appreciative of the board's vision and support.
2. President Israel is driving to Austin following the meeting in order to testify tomorrow on a panel with university and community college representatives regarding the RAND study on baccalaureate programs in BSN and cybersecurity. The hearing will last three or four hours and he will brief the board when he returns. The final report is due in September 2014.
3. In 2012, Maria Burbano received a Hi-TeCCC transfer scholarship from Collin to the University of Texas at Dallas. This year, she has been awarded the prestigious Goldwater Scholarship and Excellence in Education Program at UTD. Maria was one of 283 students across the nation selected to receive the scholarship from a field of 1,166 top students nominated by university faculty. She is majoring in Biomedical Engineering with focus on biomaterials and plans to conduct research in orthopedic implants and tissue grafts in the industrial setting. Congratulations to Ms. Burbano, Senior Vice President Colleen Smith, Vice President/Provost Mary McRae, Dean Cameron Neal and our Math and Natural Sciences faculty.
4. Former Collin College Theatre student Brian J. Smith was nominated for a Tony Award in the category Best Performance by an Actor in a Featured Role in a Play for his performance in the Broadway Show The Glass Menagerie. Although he did not win this year, we are sure this is but the first of many nominations to come for this remarkable young actor.
5. We are proud to launch the Fast Track Program in Nursing to enable veterans in our community who have received a medic certification or its equivalent to obtain an associate degree in nursing. Qualifying students can use the credits they earned in the military to receive their associate degree in nursing in as little as three semesters in this accelerated program. We appreciate Senior Vice President Colleen Smith, Vice President/Provost Sherry Schumann, Dean Abe Johnson and Dean of Nursing Donna Hatch for bringing this important program to fruition.
6. Collin was well represented at the Texas Society for Respiratory Care Annual Convention in San Antonio where two of our teams competed in this year's Sputum Bowl. Both teams made it to the "final four" competition and ended up being the last two teams standing. As such, they had to compete against each other for the final win. Both teams played exceptionally well. The students who placed first will compete at the American Association for Respiratory Care's Annual Convention in Las Vegas this November. Congratulations to our students, Senior Vice President Colleen Smith,

Vice President/Provost Sherry Schumann, Dean Abe Johnson, Program Director Araceli Solis, and our respiratory care faculty and staff.

7. Congratulations to Professor of English R. Scott Yarbrough on several recent accomplishments. His poem "A Necktie and a Hijab" has been nominated for the Pushcart Poetry Prize, considered the highest national honor for a single work of poetry. In addition, his work has been published and/or reviewed in several industry journals. Four poems, "This Little Piggy," "Those Winged Men," "Buzzard Starts Fire," and "The Great Cottonwood" appear in the anthology A Texas Garden of Verses: An Anthology of Texas Poetry published by the Texas Poetry Society and currently available through Amazon.

The Board announced the following:

Trustee Rodriguez said today marks one year since he joined the Board of Trustees and that he has learned quite a bit since he began his service.

Trustees Hardin congratulated the police officers who were recognized by the board.
