PUBLIC INFORMATION PROGRAM

June 24, 2021 (LEGAL)

	Public Information Defined	For purposes of the Texas Public Information Act (PIA), "public in- formation" means information that is written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connec- tion with the transaction of official business:
		1.	By a board;
		2.	For a board and the board:
			a.	Owns the information;
			b.	Has a right of access to the information; or
			C.	Spends or contributes public money for the purpose of writing, producing, collecting, assembling, or maintaining the information; or
		3.	or er	n individual officer or employee of a district in the officer's mployee's official capacity and the information pertains to ial business of the district.
		"Official business" means any matter over which a district has any authority, administrative duties, or advisory duties.
		Information is "in connection with the transaction of official busi- ness" if the information is created by, transmitted to, received by, or maintained by an officer or employee of the district in the officer's or employee's official capacity, or a person or entity performing offi- cial business or a governmental function on behalf of a district, and pertains to official business of the district.
		The definition of "public information" above applies to and includes any electronic communication created, transmitted, received, or maintained on any device if the communication is in connection with the transaction of official business.
		Gov't Code 552.002(a)–(a-2), .003(2-a)
	Forms of Public Information	The general forms in which the media containing public information exist include a book, paper, letter, document, email, internet post- ing, text message, instant message, other electronic communica- tion, printout, photograph, film, tape, microfiche, microfilm, photo- stat, sound recording, map, and drawing and a voice, data, or video representation held in computer memory.
		The	The media on which public information is recorded include:
		1.	Pape	er;
		2.	Film	,

PUBLIC INFORMATION PROGRAM

June 24, 2021 (LEGAL)

	3.	A magnetic, optical, solid state, or other device that can store an electronic signal;
	4.	Таре;
	5.	Mylar; and
	6.	Any physical material on which information may be recorded, including linen, silk, and vellum.
	Gov	't Code 552.002(b)–(c)
Preservation of Information	A district may determine a time for which information that is not currently in use will be preserved, subject to any applicable rule or law governing the destruction and other disposition of state and lo- cal government records or public information.
	The provisions of Chapter 441, Government Code and Title 6, Lo- cal Government Code (Local Government Records Act), governing the preservation, destruction, or other disposition of records or public information apply to records and public information held by a temporary custodian.
	Gov	Gov't Code 552.004(a), (c) [See BBI, CPC, DH]
Temporary Custodians	who lic ir offic cluc info not	mporary custodian" means an officer or employee of a district o, in the transaction of official business, creates or receives pub- nformation that the officer or employee has not provided to the eer for public information or the officer's agent. The term in- les a former officer or employee who created or received public rmation in the officer's or employee's official capacity that has been provided to the officer for public information or the of- r's agent. Gov't Code 552.003(7)
No Property Right to Public Information	not or fo the	urrent or former board member or employee of a district does have, by virtue of the board member's or employee's position ormer position, a personal or property right to public information board member or employee created or received while acting in official capacity.
Surrender or Return of Public Information	lic ir trict info	mporary custodian with possession, custody, or control of pub- nformation shall surrender or return the information to the dis- not later than the 10th day after the date the officer for public rmation or the officer's agent requests the temporary custodian urrender or return the information.
Disciplinary Action	mat	mporary custodian's failure to surrender or return public infor- ion as required is grounds for disciplinary action by the district ny other applicable penalties provided by the PIA or other law.

Horizon Montessori Public Schools 108802
PUBLIC INFORMATION	PUBLIC INFORMATION PROGRAM June 24, 2021 (LEGAL)
Calculating Timelines	For purposes of requesting an attorney general op information surrendered or returned to a district by custodian, the district is considered to receive the r information on the date the information is surrende to the district. [See GBAA]	a temporary request for that
	Gov't Code 552.233
Online Message Board	If a board maintains an online message board or si application under Government Code 551.006 [see board removes from the online message board or s application a communication that has been posted days, the board shall maintain the posting for a per This communication is public information and must accordance with the PIA. Gov't Code 551.006(d)	BBI], and the similar internet for at least 30 riod of six years.					