The Washington School Family Christmas Concert was held at Pana High School gym on Thursday December 17th at 7pm. As usual, the place was PACKED with standing room only. Students came in their best holiday attire and performed amazingly for their families and friends. There was also a wonderful display of minion projects created by students in Art class during the month. An enjoyable time was had by all.

Santa delivered us our very own ELF to watch over us in the month of December. Our ELF moved around the school watching what was going on, but he tended to focus on the cafeteria for most days, with his tenure ending on December 22nd by celebrating a pajama day at Washington School. Students participated in a sing-a-long and celebrated in their classrooms with teachers and friends—this event was sponsored by Mrs. Tynan, our ELF and Santa! There was a wonderful sing-a-long in the afternoon and Santa came to visit the students that morning in final preparation of his list!! (and take his ELF back to the North Pole) Everyone enjoyed the special experiences this month, and they truly put everyone in the holiday spirit!!

100 Days of School will be celebrated on January 26th!! Watch for details in the next edition of the Prowl.
