To whom it may concern

I am writing this letter in regards to my resignation. As of April 1, 2021, I Clifton De Roche am formally resigning from the Browning School District #9. My last day of work will be on April 15th, 2021. This is my two week notice so that the school district can advertise and find a suitable replacement. It is with mixed emotions that I am writing this letter. On one hand I have been working with the school district for awhile and have grown to care about students and staff. However on the other hand I have found a great employment opportunity. A chance to make a difference with our people. This opportunity is very exciting to me and I believe that I am making the right decision by going to a new home. I wish the school district, staff, and you the very best for the coming years.

Sincerely,
Clifton De Roche
