BACKGROUND INFORMATION

As a result of Texas Senate Bill 401 (SB 401), passed by the 89th Legislature, all public school districts in Texas are now required to allow homeschool students to participate in UIL activities—unless the school board takes formal action to opt out. If no vote is taken, homeschool students will automatically be permitted to participate in UIL activities within the district.

To remain aligned with this legislation, Argyle ISD is presenting a proposed policy update—FD \(LOCAL\)—to formally “opt out” of allowing non-enrolled homeschool students to participate in UIL activities.

Additionally, FM \(LOCAL\) will require parallel updates to ensure consistency and legal alignment with the requirements of SB 401.
