

Notice of Hearing Regarding the School Calendar for 2013-14.

In accordance with the Illinois School Code, 105 ILCS 5/24-2, please take notice that the Board of Education of Oak Park Elementary School District 97, Oak Park, Illinois will conduct a public hearing about a proposal concerning the school year calendar for 2013-14.

It is proposed ...

- 1) that Casimir Pulaski Day, ordinarily celebrated on the first Monday of March, be commuted and celebrated on Wednesday, Nov. 27, 2013, and that school be held, as usual, on the first Monday of March, 2014; and
- 2) the birthday of President Abraham Lincoln, ordinarily celebrated on February 12, be commuted and celebrated on Monday, February 17, 2014 as "Presidents' Day", and that school be held, as usual, on February 12, 2014.

The Board will take the testimony from educators and parents about this proposal.

The hearing will take place on Tuesday, February 12, 2013 at the Board meeting convening at 7:00 p.m. at the Oak Park Elementary School District 97 District Office, 970 Madison St., Oak Park, Illinois.