

Final Review of Student Housing Project
Construction Documents Prior to Advertising Invitation for Bids

The architects will present the construction documents for the student housing project prior to advertising the invitation for bids. After review, the Facilities Committee will determine its recommendation to the Board of Regents for consideration.