2.9 The LEA shall use its best efforts to prevent access to the Website and Components by anyone who is not an Authorized User. If the LEA becomes aware of any unauthorized use, it shall immediately give written notice of the unauthorized use to TCMPC and it shall cooperate with TCMPC and 3rdL to terminate the unauthorized use.

2.10 The LEA shall use its best efforts to ensure that Authorized Users affiliated with the LEA comply with the terms and restrictions of this DULA and the Terms of Service on the Website.

The LEA also acknowledges its understanding that some additional or enhanced services may be provided by an ESC pursuant to a separate contract between the LEA and the ESC.

4. Required Hardware and Software. The LEA is responsible for obtaining and maintaining all computer hardware, software and communications equipment needed by the LEA to use the TEKS Resource System. The initial minimum specifications are attached as Exhibit A. The LEA acknowledges that Authorized Users whose computer systems do not meet the minimum specifications shall not be entitled to access to the Website. The parties agree that the agreement between the LEA and the ESC and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, constitute good and valid consideration to support the parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement.

7. Ownership and Use of Intellectual Property. The LEA acknowledges that it has no Intellectual Property Rights or ownership interest whatsoever in any Components (including but not limited to any text, images, photographs, animations, video, audio, music, “applets” incorporated into the application, and the related printed materials and documentation), the Website (including but not limited to the branding, navigation, and “look and feel” of the Website), the name “TEKS Resource System” (including any related logos, trademarks and service marks), or the products, services, programs or technology that TCMPC makes available to the LEA through this DULA or otherwise, and whether protected by copyright, trade secret, patent or other Intellectual Property Rights.

8. Term and Termination.

8.1 Except as otherwise provided in this Section 8, this DULA shall commence on the Effective Date and shall terminate on August 31, 2014 (the “Initial Term”). This DULA shall automatically continue for additional one-year terms unless either party gives the other 90 days advance written notice that it does not intend to renew.

8.2 This DULA shall terminate automatically on the termination of the Services Agreement.

8.3 Either party may terminate this DULA immediately: (i) on a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or obligation of a party under this DULA, and the failure of that party to remedy the material breach within 60 days following its receipt of written notice of the breach from the other party (or five days in the case of a payment default); (ii) if a party becomes insolvent, executes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or becomes subject to bankruptcy or receivership proceedings; or (iii) if TCMPC or 3rdL ceases operations.

8.4 The provisions of Sections 1 (Definitions), 7 (Ownership and Use of Intellectual Property), 9 (Confidentiality), 10 (Representations and Warranties), 11 (Limitation of Liability), and 12 (Miscellaneous) shall survive the termination of this DULA.

9. Confidentiality

9.1 Each party (as applicable, a “Disclosing Party”) acknowledges that, except as otherwise provided by law, all Confidential Information disclosed to the other party (the “Receiving Party”) pursuant to this DULA is owned by the Disclosing Party. This DULA shall not be deemed to vest in either party any rights to the Confidential Information of the other party. Each party shall keep the Confidential Information strictly confidential and prevent the unauthorized use, disclosure, or publication thereof, whether negligent, inadvertent or otherwise, by its employees, consultants, agents or representatives. Each party shall prevent unauthorized access to the Confidential Information and shall permit access only to those persons authorized to work on the matter to which the Confidential Information relates. The non-disclosure obligations shall continue after the termination of this DULA.

9.2 Each party consents to the disclosure of the other party’s Confidential Information to those employees, contractors and consultants who have a need to know such information in order to comply with the terms of this DULA and who have agreed to be bound by the terms of this Section 9.

9.3 On termination of this DULA, either party may make a written request for return of any Confidential Information, and within 10 days after such request, unless retention is required by law, the Receiving Party shall deliver to the Disclosing Party: (a) all materials containing Confidential Information furnished to the Receiving Party by the Disclosing Party or developed using the materials furnished to the Receiving Party by the Disclosing Party; and (b) all tangible media of expression in the Receiving Party's possession or control which incorporate or include any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party. Electronic records shall be delivered in the format requested by the Disclosing Party. In addition, the Receiving Party shall permanently delete any of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information that is electronically stored on any equipment under its control. A Receiving Party shall, within 10 days of written request, provide the Disclosing Party with written certification of the Receiving Party's compliance with its obligations under this Section 9.

9.4 The provisions of this Section 9 do not apply to the extent that: (i) the information communicated was already known to the Receiving Party, without any obligation to keep it confidential, at the time of the Receiving Party's receipt of the information from the Disclosing Party; (ii) the information communicated was received in good faith from a third party lawfully in possession of the information and having no obligation to keep it confidential; (iii) the information communicated was publicly known at the time of receipt or has become publicly known other than by a breach of this DULA; (iv) the information was independently developed without reference to the Confidential Information. However, this Section 9 shall not apply if the Receiving Party is ordered by a court or another governmental body of competent jurisdiction (including a request under the Texas Open Records Act or similar law or regulation) to disclose the Confidential Information. In that event, the Receiving Party shall attempt to promptly notify the Disclosing Party in writing prior to disclosure in order to give the Disclosing Party a reasonable opportunity to seek an appropriate protective order, and the Receiving Party shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that it is required to disclose under an administrative or other governmental order.

10. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Each party represents and warrants to the other that:

10.1 The execution and delivery of this DULA has been duly authorized by such party and this DULA is valid and binding.

NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ANY KIND, INCLUDING ATTORNEYS' FEES, IN ANY WAY DUE TO, RESULTING FROM OR ARISING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

11.2 NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, THERE IS NO LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR VIOLATION OF THE RESTRICTIONS SET FORTH IN SECTION 2 OR THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 9.

12.4 Jurisdiction and Venue. Any action or proceeding in connection with this DULA shall be brought in Travis County, Texas. The parties irrevocably: (i) submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts, and (ii) waive any objection to venue of any action or proceeding or any argument that such court is in an inconvenient forum.

Whenever used in this DULA, the singular number will include the plural, and the plural number will include the singular, and pronouns in the masculine, feminine, or neuter gender will include each other gender. 12.8 Attorneys' Fees. Subject to Section 11.1, if any action at law or in equity is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of any of this DULA, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and necessary disbursements in addition to any other relief to which the party may be entitled.

12.9 Entire Agreement; Amendment. This DULA constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes all prior agreements or understandings between the parties. No amendment to this DULA shall be valid unless it is in writing and signed by both parties.

12.10 Injunctive Relief. Breach of certain of the obligations in this DULA, including Sections 2.1 through 2.11 (relating to restrictions), 9 (Confidentiality), as well as breach of certain other provisions of this DULA, would cause irreparable damage to a party and therefore, in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity, each party shall have the right to seek equitable and injunctive relief for breach of those provisions without the necessity of posting bond or proving damages. In addition, each party shall be liable to the other under this DULA if there is any breach by a party or its affiliates, or by their respective employees, contractors, consultants, auditors, agents or representatives.

12.11 No Partnership. This DULA is not intended in any manner to and does not create the relationship of principal and agent between the parties, nor shall this DULA be deemed to establish a partnership or joint venture. Each party shall be solely responsible for compensating its own employees, including the payment of employment-related taxes. This Section 12.11 shall not in any way limit the ability of TCMPC to enter into amendments to the Services Agreement and TCMPC shall have full authority to amend the Services Agreement as it determines is appropriate, in its sole judgment, without prior notice to or approval of the LEA.

12.12 Severability. If any provision of this DULA is held by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision shall be severed from the remainder of this DULA, and the remainder of this DULA shall be enforced. In addition, the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision shall be deemed to be automatically modified, to the minimum extent necessary to render the provision valid, legal and enforceable and to the extent necessary to adjust equitably the parties' respective rights and obligations under this DULA.

12.13 Delays or Omissions. No course of dealing between the parties, no failure to exercise and no delay in exercising, any right under this DULA shall operate as a waiver of that right, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right under this DULA preclude any other or further exercise of that or any other right. No waiver shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by all of the parties. All remedies, either under this DULA or by law or otherwise afforded to any party, shall be cumulative and not alternative.

Executed as of the Effective Date.
