B. Attendance Zone Meetings and Process

I was pleased to see the turnout at the recent Town Hall meetings. A hallmark of districts, such as ours, is the level of parental and community involvement. This was no exception and I am certain has been in place in AISD for generations.

Administration is greatly looking forward to discussion on this agenda under the Board President's Report related to next steps in this important process. While is highly unlikely that all stakeholders will leave this process pleased with the ultimate outcome of redrawing attendance zones, I do believe all can point back to a process that was completely transparent and involved all interested parties.

I am grateful to be part of a community that can have a conversation about such a sensitive issue and keep the discussion as amiable as it has been.
