New Year's Day is upon us. It marks the ending of one year and the beginning of the next. During the ancient Roman times the first of March marked the first day of their new year. Many years later Pope Gregory XIII in 1582 brought the calendar to what it is today. The Roman New Year, thanks to Pope Gregory XIII, thus began on January 1st. By the twentieth century January 1st became a universal date to celebrate the New Year. On the first day of the New Year many make resolutions, goals or promises to work toward. The second grade classes were asked what New Year's Resolutions are going to hold for them.

Here are their answers:
