

SPECIAL RECOGNITION: TABSE HONORS RUBY YOUNG AS EXEMPLARY SCHOOL

Congratulations to Ruby Young Elementary for being named a Texas Alliance of Black School Educators (TABSE) Exemplary School. The campus joins other Texas schools who received the honor at the TABSE annual Convention in Galveston in January.

To qualify, a school must have achieved an Exemplary ranking by the Texas Education Agency and have an African American principal or 35% or more of the student population must be African American.

Congratulations Ruby Young Elementary staff and students.
