- 8. The hearings officer or the student may record the hearing;
- 9. Strict rules of evidence shall not apply to the proceedings. However, this shall not limit the hearings officer's control of the hearing;
- 10. If the Board is conducting the expulsion hearing, the Board may designate the Board chair or a third party as the hearings officer. The hearing officer will determine the facts of each case on the evidence presented at the hearing. Evidence may include the relevant past history and records of the student education records. The hearings officer will provide to the Board, Findings of as to the facts, as to the recommended decision and whether the student has committed the alleged conduct will be submitted to the Board, along with the. This will include the hearings officer's recommended decision on disciplinary action if any, including the duration of any expulsion. This material will be available in identical form to th Board, the student if age 18 or over and the students' parents at the same time. Following the review by the Board of the hearings officer's recommendation, the Board will make the final decision regarding expulsion;
- 11. Findings of fact as to whether the student has committed the alleged conduct will be submitted, along with the officer's decision on disciplinary action if any, including the duration of any expulsion. This decision will be made available to the student and the student's parents or guardians;
- 12. The hearing officer or the student may make a record of the hearing;
- 13. If the decision of the hearing officer is appealed, the Board at its next regular meeting will review the decision of the hearing officer and will affirm, modify or reverse the decision. This decision will be made available to the student and the student's parents or guardians. Parents or guardians of students who wish to appeal the decision of the hearing officer will have the opportunity to be heard at the time the Board reviews the decision; If the Board has delegated authority to the superintendent [or designee] to act as the hearings officer, the superintendent may designate him or herself, or a third party, as the hearings officer. The hearings officer's decision is final. However, a decision of the hearings officer may be appealed by the parent or the student if age 18 or over to the Board for review. If the decision of the hearings officer is appealed to the Board for review, the findings as to the facts and the hearings officer's decision will be submitted to the Board, and will be available in identical form to the Board, the student and the students' parents at the same time. At its next regular or special meeting the Board will review the hearings officer's decision and will affirm, modify or reverse the decision;
- 14. Expulsion hearings will be conducted in private and A Board review of the hearing officer's decision will be conducted in executive session unless the student or the student's parent or guardian request a public hearing. If an executive session is held by the Board or a private hearing held by the hearings officer, the following will not be made public:
  - a. The name of the minor student;
  - b. The issues involved, including a student's confidential medical record and that student's educational program;

- c. The discussion;
- d. The vote of Board members, which may be taken in executive session when considering an expulsion.

Prior to expulsion, the district must propose alternative education programs of instruction or instruction combined with counseling to a student expelled for reasons other than a weapons policy violation. The district must document to the parent or guardian of the student that proposals of alternative programs have been made.
