MEMORANDUM

TO: Mr. Gilberto Gonzalez, Superintendent of Schools

FROM: Daniella Byrne, Public Information Officer

SUBJECT: 2016 -2017 Top 5 Spirit Schools Board Recognition

DATE: April 24, 2017

This school year, Eagle Pass Independent School District began hosting their first Most Spirited School competition and as of May 5th, the top 5 schools of the competition will be announced and recognized. The winner from these 5 schools will be announced at the End-of-Year Ceremony on June 2nd.

This memo is to ask for the Top 5 Schools to be recognized at the May 9th School Board Meeting. They will receive a certificate for their campus.

This upcoming school year, Eagle Pass Independent School District will be hosting its first annual Most Spirited School Competition. The purpose of this competition is to rally district morale and increase opportunities for the students and teachers to showcase their school's individual talents. There are great things happening in our district and this is the opportunity to show our peers.

The Most Spirited School Competition will be points based which are outlined below. The competition will commence at Convocation, August 18th 2016 and conclude May 5th 2017. The top 5 schools as of May 5th 2017 will be featured in the End of Year video, as well as recognized at the End of the Year Ceremony. It will be at the End of the Year Ceremony where the Most Spirited School will be announced and awarded with the coveted EPISD traveling Spirit Stick and a banner to be hung at your school announcing your campus as "The 2016 – 2017 Most Spirited School".
