B. District Events

1. McCall- Brown Bag lunch community meeting Oct. 26th, 12:00 noon, library
2. Football-Band Parent Night- Oct. 26th, 7:30 kickoff

C. Community Meetings Update- Held my "Brown Bag Lunch" community meeting at Coder on Sept. 27th. There were 14 parents and 2 teachers in attendance. Sept. 24th at Daniel 9th Grade Campus, I held an evening community meeting and we had approximately 20 parents in attendance. On Oct. 11th, I held a Brown Bag lunch at Vandagriff, with 4 parents in attendance. My last Brown Bag lunch this fall will be at McCall Elementary, Oct. 26th at noon in the school library. Minutes for all these meetings are on each elementary school's web page and the minutes from the Daniel 9th grade meeting are on the District web page under the "Parents" tab.

D. Demographer's Report- Bob Templeton (the District's demographer) will be speaking at the November 12th Board Meeting with a growth update (it was originally planned for Oct. meeting but we wanted to wait for more updated info). With new neighborhoods being added in our area, we want to keep the Board apprised of the latest projections for growth.

E. Christmas "Come and Go" party- Wed. Dec. 12th, 2012- 8:30 AM-4:30 PM- annual District Christmas festivities with holiday food and fun. It is an all-day event or as long as the food lasts!

F. Make Education a Priority Update-

- Campaign is being developed for the month of February, led by Carrol ISD Board member Sue Armstrong. Purpose of the rally is to create more local awareness of the positives of public education.
- Denton ISD and 17 surrounding school districts are also planning a similar event also in February.
