

Pupil Services/Special Education

Board Report

January 2023

Teaching and Learning

- Explicit Instruction professional development for elementary staff
 - Staff completing survey regarding training
 - Leadership team developed plan for continued implementation and supports
- Co-teaching professional development continue into for middle school and high school special education and regular education collaboration in the areas of reading and math
- Caseload planning for special education case managers fro 2023-2024 school year based on student needs and numbers to prepare open enrollment spaces available
- Teaching and Learning and Pupil Services/Special Education continued collaboration and work defining our Multi Level Systems of Supports for clarity of behavioral and academic assistance, pathway, and support

Whole Child

- Mental Health Services
 - Review of data from SAEBRS, b.e.s.t Screener and YRBS
 - Development of plan for Social Emotional Curriculum selection committee
 - Committee to include involvement and input from teachers, counselors, administration, board of education members, community members and parents
 - Information session scheduled for January 26, at 5:30 p.m.
 - The meeting will explain what Social Emotional Learning is and why we are review our current curriculum. The process of how we choose curriculum will also be explained. We will share the timeline for selection. We will explain the opportunities to be involved and the commitments required.
 - January 20th presentation for middle school and high school staff focusing on support and staff support in the areas of building resilience in students.
 - Presenters will be Barbie Bunnell, behavioral health therapist, and Ashley Miller, Licensed Professional Counselor and Substance Abuse Counselor