Lorenzo Loya

To the rest of Texas, he is recognized as the school board member with the longest term of service to any community. Loya, who served 50 years on the San Elizario school district board, died Tuesday. He was 72.

Diocese

The church was built in 1773 and was known as Nuestra Sra. del Pilo Y El Glorioso San Jose. Destroyed by a flood in 1845, the church was rebuilt over a period of years and in 1882 was renamed San Elizario Church after St. Elzear, a 14th century Frenchman.
