Special Education - Services for Home-Schooled Students with Disabilities**

If the district receives notice that a parent intends to home school a student with a disability, the district shall offer an opportunity for an individualized education program (IEP) meeting to consider providing special education and related services in conjunction with home schooling and provide written notice to the parent that a free appropriate public education will be provided if the student enrolls in the district. This notice shall be provided annually as long as:

1. The student remains eligible for special education; and
2. The student is exempt from compulsory education as a home-schooled student; and
3. The student is not receiving special education and related services from the district.

~~The district will offer, and document to the parent, an opportunity for an IEP meeting to consider providing special education and related services to the student in conjunction with home schooling. An IEP will only be developed for the student if the IEP team determines that a free appropriate public education can be provided in conjunction with the home schooling. Services may be provided in the home only to the extent that special education or related services would be provided in the home if the student were not home-schooled. If an IEP is prepared for a homeschooled student, it will be developed in accordance with the requirements in OAR Chapter 581, Division 15, except as provided in OAR 581-021-0029(5)(b).~~
