

The District wants to sod areas outside of the track not covered by the track construction contracts.