Principal's General Narrative:

The registration process is underway. Our career and technology teachers gave a presentation to all 7-12 explaining the opportunities in those areas. We expect increased participation in career and technology classes. Tutorials to . I and all the members of the high school appreciate the time, effort, and wisdom that school board members give on our behalf. We recognize that without the great leadership from the school board and Mrs. Renken our direction of continued and greater success would not be possible.
