2025 Required Annual Racial Profiling Report

Mandatory Annual Racial Profiling Report

The Mandatory Annual Racial Profiling Report is a required yearly report that law enforcement agencies in Texas must complete to show data about traffic stops and other public contacts made by officers.

The purpose of the report is to promote transparency and accountability by documenting whether law enforcement actions (such as stops, searches, citations, and arrests) show any patterns related to a person's race or ethnicity.

The report typically includes information such as:

- The race/ethnicity of individuals contacted
- The reason for the stop/contact
- Whether a search was conducted
- Whether a citation, warning, or arrest occurred
- The results of the contact (including contraband found, if applicable)

This report helps agencies and the public review law enforcement practices and ensure they are fair and unbiased.

Texas Code of Criminal Procedure — Article 2.132

Law Enforcement Policy on Racial Profiling:

This statute requires every law enforcement agency in Texas to:

- Adopt a written policy prohibiting racial profiling.
- Collect specific data on motor vehicle stops including race/ethnicity, reasons for stops, searches, and outcomes.
- Submit an annual report of the collected information to:
- The Texas Commission on Law Enforcement (TCOLE) and
- The governing body of the municipality or county served by the agency.

This article defines the racial profiling reporting requirement itself and is the key legal basis for the Annual Racial Profiling Report.
