

Expanding College Access

SAGINAW PUBLIC
SCHOOLS'
PARTNERSHIP WITH
THE
NATIONAL EDUCATION
EQUITY LAB

Penn

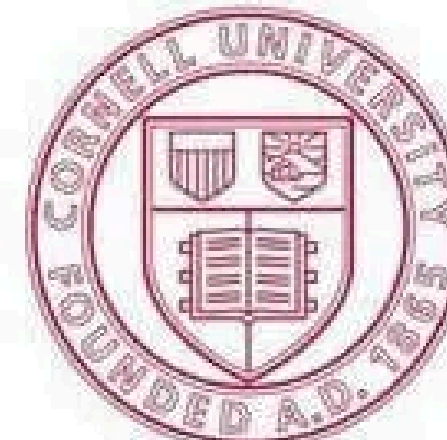

COLUMBIA

HARVARD

Yale

Cornell

BROWN

PRINCETON

About the National Equity Lab

- A nationally recognized initiative partnering top universities with public schools
- Offers real college courses taught by professors from Ivy League and top-tier universities
- Provides dual credit opportunities and college readiness skills
- Empowers students from diverse backgrounds to thrive in college-level learning

Partner Universities Include

- Harvard University
- Stanford University
- Brown University
- Columbia University
- Georgetown University
- Morehouse University
- Arizona State University
- Wesleyan University

Stanford
University

BROWN

HARVARD
UNIVERSITY

Why This Partnership Matters

SPSD

- 01 Expands College Access
 - Gives students exposure to college-level learning
- 02 Strengthens College Applications
 - Students earn college credits before graduating
- 03 Prepares Students for Future Careers
 - Courses align with STEM, social sciences, and social justice fields
- 05 Equity-Driven Initiative:
 - Expands Dual Enrollment and Early College Pathways
- 06 Empowering Students to Pursue Higher Education and Competitive Careers
- 07
 - Strengthening Saginaw Public Schools' Commitment to Innovation and as a Leader in K-12 Higher Education Collaboration

Saginaw United Course Offerings

2025-2026

Social Change Pathway:

- Fall 2025: Social Problems – Morehouse College (HSOC 103)
- Fall 2025: Introduction to Sociology – Arizona State University (SOC 101)

Social Science Pathway:

- Spring 2026: From Malcolm to Martin – Stanford University (AMSTUD 141X)
- Spring 2026: Introduction to Psychology – Wesleyan University (PSYC 105)

SASA Course Offerings

2025-2026

Fall 2025:

- Introduction to Sociology – Arizona State University / Howard University
- Introduction to Engineering – Brown University

Spring 2026:

- Introduction to Psychology – Wesleyan University
- Introduction to Bioengineering – Stanford University

The Student Experience

SPSD

- Direct Learning from Top Professors
- Engaging College-Level Coursework
- Mentorship from University Teaching Fellows
- Collaboration with a National Peer Network
- Earn College Credit While in High School

Questions ?