Browning Public Schools 22-23 SY PIR-Professional Development Requirements

Requirements: By state law, full-time teachers need to complete 18 hours of PIR professional development credit, which include 6 hours for District-directed events and 12 hours for the two paid MFPE days. Those not attending MFPE for 12 hours need to make up their hours through other offerings, institutes or special requests.

Under MCA 20.3. 304 and Browning Public Schools will provide the following opportunities for our certified Montana educators to receive up to 18 professional development hours during the 22-23 SY according to MCA 20-1-304:

Montana Code Annotated 2021

TITLE 20, EDUCATION
CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS
Part 3. School Terms and Holidays -- Released Time

Pupil-Instruction-Related Day

20-1-304. Pupil-instruction-related day. A pupil-instruction-related day is a day of teacher activities devoted to improving the quality of instruction. The activities may include but are not limited to inservice training, attending state meetings of teacher organizations, and conducting parent conferences. A maximum of 7 pupil-instruction-related days may be conducted during a school year, with a minimum of 3 of the days for instructional and professional development meetings or other appropriate inservice training, if the days are planned in accordance with the policy adopted by the board of public education. The days may not be included as a part of the required minimum aggregate hours of pupil instruction.

Time Frame: The Professional Development year begins on the first day of summer vacation and runs until May 31st. Pay will be deducted from the educator's final paycheck, including benefits and retirement, if hours are not completed on time and documented with the educator's respective building principal by May 31st of the SY.

Verification of Completed Hours: Educators must verify professional development participation through submitted MT OPI Renewal Unit verification forms, or certificate of completion for professional learning.

What is a PIR Day? Which of those PIR days are designated for Professional Development?

PIR stands for Pupil Instruction Related. The Administrative Rules of Montana (20-1-304) specify that a school that is in session for at least 180 pupil-instruction days may count for the year a maximum of seven PIR days with a minimum of three of the days for instructional and professional development meetings or other appropriate in-service training. These seven PIR days, in addition to the 180 pupil-instructed days, may be counted, provided that such additional days do not include any time counted for pupil instruction and are used for one or more of the following purposes:

- (a) Staff orientation held prior to the beginning of pupil instruction for the purpose of organization of the school year(August Teacher Orientation Days these are 3 days of your 187 day contract, 1-day is designated as a Professional Development day)
- (b) Staff professional development programs scheduled during the year for the purpose of improving instruction which shall include annual instructional and professional development meetings (October MFPE Days these are 2 days of your 187 day contract).
- (c) Parent-teacher conferences for the purpose of acquainting parents with the school and the progress of their children (these are 2 days of your 187 day contract both are designated for Professional Development).
- (d) (3 days equals 18 hours)

10.55.714 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

(1) Professional development:

(a) shall be aligned with district educational goals and objectives;

(b) focuses on teachers as central to student learning and includes all other members of the school community;

- (c) focuses on individual, collegial, and organizational improvement;
- (d) respects and nurtures the intellectual and leadership capacity of teachers, principals, and others in the school community;
- (e) reflects proven research and practice in teaching, learning, and leadership;
- (f) enables teachers to develop further experience in subject content, teaching strategies, uses of technologies, and other essential elements in teaching to high standards;
- (g) promotes continuous inquiry and improvement embedded in the daily life of schools;
- (h) is ongoing and sustained;
- (i) is planned collaboratively by those who will participate in and facilitate that development;
- (j) requires substantial time and other resources;
- (k) is driven by a coherent long-term plan; and
- (l) is evaluated on the impact of professional development on teacher effectiveness and student learning, and the results of this assessment guides subsequent professional development.

(2) Teachers and specialists shall annually complete professional development pursuant to the requirements of 20-1-304 and 20-4-304, MCA, including a minimum of three pupil instruction related (PIR) days dedicated exclusively to professional development.

(a) A professional development PIR day shall constitute six hours of contact time.

(b) A school district may divide a professional development PIR day into no fewer than two-hour blocks of contact time.

(c) A professional development block may be held on the same day as a pupil instruction day, but a school district shall not schedule a professional development PIR day to convene simultaneously with a pupil instruction day.

(3) The local board of trustees shall establish an advisory committee to evaluate the school district's current school year professional development plan; and develop and recommend a plan for the subsequent school year.

(a) The advisory committee shall include, but not be limited to, trustees, administrators, and teachers. A majority of the committee shall be teachers.

(b) Each school year the local board of trustees shall adopt a professional development plan for the subsequent school year based on the recommendation of the advisory committee.

(c) The plan recommended by the advisory committee and adopted by the local board of trustees shall outline how, when, and from whom teachers and specialists shall meet their professional development PIR day expectations.

(d) The plan adopted by the local board of trustees must take into consideration the advisory committee's recommendations and include two professional development PIR days in October during which schools must close in order to permit teachers and specialists to attend the annual professional development meetings of state professional associations.

(e) The adopted plan may include alternatives but shall not interfere with or prohibit teacher and specialist attendance at the annual October professional development meetings of state professional associations.

(f) Teachers and specialists who do not attend the annual professional development October meetings of state professional associations or school district plan approved alternative professional development PIR days shall not be paid for the days they are absent.

(g) Teachers, specialists, administrators, and school districts shall not substitute for professional development PIR day purposes professional development opportunities not specifically outlined in the school district's adopted professional development plan.

(h) The local board of trustees shall make their plan available to employees and the public.
