

Hutch Happenings for Jan 2013!

"Every man should be born again on the first day of January. Start with a fresh page."

~Henry Ward Beecher

January

Continued theme: Choose Kind!!

P.T.O.- Jan 8th- Parents and Teachers will meet and discuss future Hutch events and what the group would like to use the Dunn Store money for. Currently we are working on sprucing up the library to make it more like a "Hutch & Nobles"!

Jump Rope for Heart – Jan 11th – Hutch students will jump during P.E. to raise awareness for Healthy Hearts! The students who choose to participate will collect donations for one week to send to the American Heart Association.

Mitchell County Stockshow – Jan 11th – Hutch has about 10 students competing in the stockshow! They've worked hard with their animals and we wish them the best of luck!

Staff Development – Jan 21st – Today we will look closely at Lean4ward.com and see the potentials it has to help our campus with our STAAR preparations. We will also look at the book, Embedded Formative Assessment by Dylan Wiliam, to see how ongoing classroom assessments vary and help in identifying the needs of our students.

Hutch 50% Accelerated Reader & UIL Recognition Ceremony- Jan 23rd – Each grade level will meet to congratulate the A.R. accomplishments of all; whether it be 25%, 50%, or more! We will also recognize those students who participated in our Fall U.I.L. Academic meet!

50% Accelerated Reader Celebration – Those students who achieved 50% of their A.R. goal, by the deadline, with 80% accuracy will spend the afternoon making homemade ice cream (individually) and then enjoying a reader’s theater by a special guest!

🐾 3 Week Reports – Jan 28th – Parents will be notified of their child’s progress half way through this 4th six weeks and of upcoming STAAR benchmark dates.

Wednesdays – Hutch Tshirt Day! - to show school spirit and unity!

Encouragements – Attend Wolf and Lady Wolf basketball games and cheer them on! Attend the 3M Palace Movie Theater for weekend, evening entertainment. 🐾
