Reference:

"A multi-year contract must...contain a clause retaining to the board the continuing right to terminate at the expiration of each budget period of the school district during the term of the contract {Or, the school board may condition the contract on} a best efforts attempt by the school board to obtain and appropriate funds for the payment of the contract."

From a formal opinion from the office of the Attorney General, DM-418, Sept, 23, 1996

Note - The ISD has the option of negating this agreement if it is determined not to be in the best interest of the School District.
