Greetings from Glendale,

I hope you all had an enjoyable Easter. March was a quiet and uneventful month at the colony school. We had our monthly visit from Mrs. Shea on the 1st. She read St. Patrick's Day books and did a few art/writing activities with the students.

All curriculum for the end of third quarter has been completed and I am getting ready for parent-teacher conferences on April 9th and 11th. We are gearing up for the SBAC testing this month and the final writing assessment of the year.

It is hard to believe we are almost to the end of another school year. I am so pleased with the students' progress.

Your partner in education,
Cindy Show
