

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF COPPELL, TEXAS

RESOLUTION NO. 2004-12/4.1

AND A RESOLUTION OF THE COPPELL INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

A JOINT RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF COPPELL, TEXAS, AND THE COPPELL INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT ENDORSING THE HEALTHY COMMUNITIES-HEALTHY YOUTH INITIATIVE.

WHEREAS, youth deserve to grow up safe, healthy, loved, secure, and well-educated; and

WHEREAS, many families need support to meet the needs of their youth in this stressful society; and

WHEREAS, the city of Coppel and Coppel Independent School District have joined in partnership to focus on building developmental assets for Coppel youth through the Healthy Communities-Healthy Youth initiative; and

WHEREAS, our initiative will focus on developing a community-wide infrastructure to surround youth with the wide range of assets that are critical for healthy development; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the interdependence of government, schools, parents, businesses, congregations, civic organizations, and neighborhoods, and thus believe the best way to ensure our youth's future is to all work together; and

WHEREAS, because of its traditions, community spirit, and strong sense of caring, Coppel will focus on making these efforts succeed and in doing so will become a model for other communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the city of Coppel, Texas and Coppel Independent School District endorse the Healthy Communities-Healthy Youth initiative and encourage all of its citizens to participate in the healthy development of our most precious resource, our youth.
