Aloha High School Cheerleaders win National Championship

The 65-member Aloha High School Cheer Team recently won 1st Place for Intermediate Large Varsity Show Cheer at the 2015 USA Spirit National Competition in Anaheim, CA.

Congratulations, Aloha High School Cheerleaders!

3rd Place winner in the Rose City Sing Off – Nothing But Treble, Westview High School

The Westview High School a cappella choir, Nothing But Treble, won third place in the 2015 Rose City Sing Off.

The Rose City Sing Off is a premier a cappella competition for high school-age singers in the Northwest. The competition not only provides an exciting opportunity for youth to compete, but also a chance to perform for three professional judges. Nine qualifying choirs are admitted, and all groups perform in a single round of competition.

Nothing But Treble will be awarded $250 and have the opportunity to sing in the Grand Floral Parade next month. Hanna Evans, of Nothing But Treble, won the Best Vocal Percussionist award.

Congratulations, Nothing But Treble, and we look forward to seeing you in the parade!
