Hi Voyd,

My name is Kim Kovacs, and I'm writing from the Gabriel Dumont Institute Library in Regina, SK. I've just spoken with the printshop on the phone, and they directed me to email you....we received a donation of a photocopy of a book by Fred Nault called Fred Nault: Montana Metis as told by himself. I've attached the cover page and the notice about the prohibition on reproduction to this email.

We would like to add this book to our library's collection (we're part of a non-profit organization that focuses on education for Métis people), but we don't know who made the photocopy, nor do we know whether they had permission to do so. As superintendent of the Rocky Boy School, we're wondering if you'd be able to grant us permission to add this copy to our library's collection, or direct us to someone who would be in a position to do so.

Of course, if permission is not granted, we will refrain from adding it to our collection and dispose of it in whatever way the Rocky Boy School Board of Trustees may direct.

Please let me know if you need any additional information. Thanks for any light you can shed,

Kim
