FFA students competed February 17th at the Section 19 Proficiency Awards night with their record books. Two students won their area: Angel Lutz in Veterinary Science, Adam Cloe in Ag Sales. Also competing were Bradley Barringer and Austin Fikan.

Congratulations to the following students who participated in the IHSA Solo/Ensemble Contest for Band on Saturday, March 6: Cassie Baggett, Emma Dilley, Emily Jones, Zach Kulinski, Madylyn Rowley and Teagan Strom. Emily and Teagan both received Superior ratings for their solos, and Emma and Mady received Excellent ratings.

The annual spring Blood Drive, sponsored by the senior class, was held March 11th. Mr. Evaul, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Pauley wish to thank all the students, faculty and staff who gave blood or that helped with the blood drive. Thanks to these everyday heroes we collected 74 units of blood – a record for PHS! The need for blood is constant and this makes it possible for patients to receive it.

Mrs. Beyers' History class created a timeline of the space race. It is posted on the wall by Mr. Whetsell's room and if you scan the QR code on each poster with your phone you can find out more information on each topic.

Congratulations to Elizabeth Wood! She is a finalist in the "Best of College & High School Photography 2016." Sophomore Elizabeth Wood entered a competition titled, "Best of College & High School Photography 2016." The competition is held through the Photographer's Forum magazine, Serbin publications. She is being recognized for her photography, as a finalist in the competition. Her work will be published in the Photographer's Forum magazine and book.
