Each year students from JTHS participate in the Illinois Design Educators Association Drafting competition. The regional competitions are held at local community colleges and over 900 students competed throughout the state this year. Students compete in one of the 8 different individual-based divisions or one of the 2 team-based divisions. Any students who comes in first or second place at the regional will advance to the state competition at Illinois State University. This year Joliet Central had ten students earn medals and Joliet West had two students earn medals at the regional.

Joliet West Regional Medalists (sponsor – Jeff Biernacki)

- Josy Garcia, 3rd place in the Assembly Modeling division
