Hello Families-

I hope you have welcomed in 2014 and are ready to embrace all the opportunities it brings. We are quickly approaching the mid- year point in the school year. I am amazed how quickly the school year is passing. This is a time of great learning and academic growth; it is exciting to see a child learn. The look on their face as they learn to read and fall in love with books is priceless. The pride in their eyes as they solve a math problem or complete a science experiment is an amazing thing. We are truly blessed to be part of this learning.

As with all other areas of your child's education, we will continue to ask you for your support in making this year a success. Your child needs your help and support to reach their goals. Each child has individual learning goals; communicate with your child and their teacher to see how you can be an active part in helping them achieve their goals.

Attendance plays a significant role in academic success. Please make every effort to have your child at school every day. It is also important for students to arrive to school on time. Ms. Sarah has breakfast ready every morning at 7:15 and our learning bell rings at 7:40am. Being on time and ready to work builds success today and in life.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if there is any way we can further help build success for your child. I am excited to watch your child grow over the next 5 months of school. I look forward to seeing you all at our Family Reading Night.

Facts of the Day for February

Dear Williams Community,

The Facts of the Day are a routine part of our school days. They can be seen in every classroom and in the gym. Students are increasingly becoming more fluent in basic facts. Place this calendar in a prominent place. Students are excited to see who can correctly get the facts first. Please remember that the addition facts are especially good for all grades, while the multiplication facts are intended for grades 3-5. We appreciate all of your support!

Artist in Residence

In February and March, Williams Elementary will welcome two local Artist in Residence. Sherry Peterson local artist and substitute teacher will be here to teach our students about watercolors and stencils. We would also like to welcome Sylvia Branzei-Valasquez, author and inventor of the Grossology book and TV series. Sylvia is also known to our students as one of the "Wacky Dogs". While at Williams, Sylvia will give a Grossology performance and perform her latest "Rebel in a Dress". You can meet Sylvia at our Family Reading Night. Read more about both Sherry and Sylvia at sherrypetersonart.com and www.branzei.com
