

Site Report – Newhalen – March, 2025

To: Superintendent Kasie Luke
and LPSD School Board Members

From: Newhalen School

Photos & Description of Activities and Events

As we prepare for the final quarter of the school year we are making a hard push in order to fill everyone's needs.

Working with students one on one.

Small group reading instruction.

Engaging students while they are working on reading to help with focus.

Individual reading time.

Whole class reading lessons.

Preschool working on places in line.

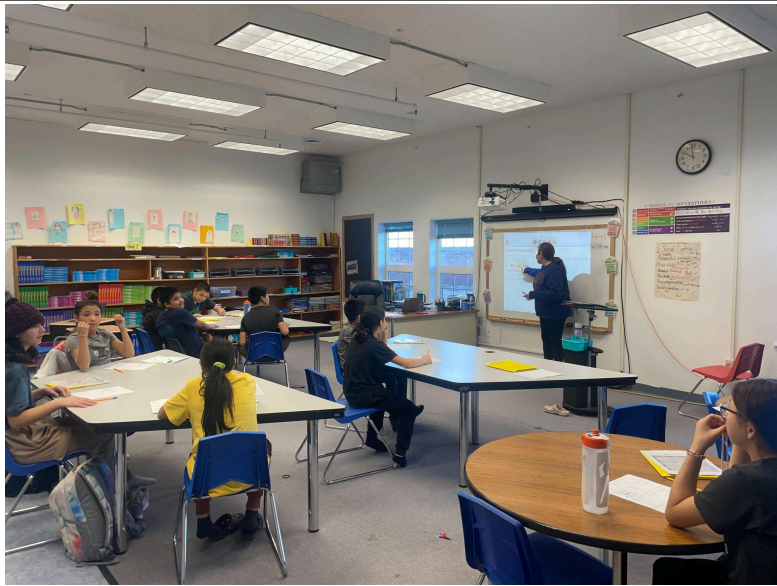

Classes connecting stories and authors.

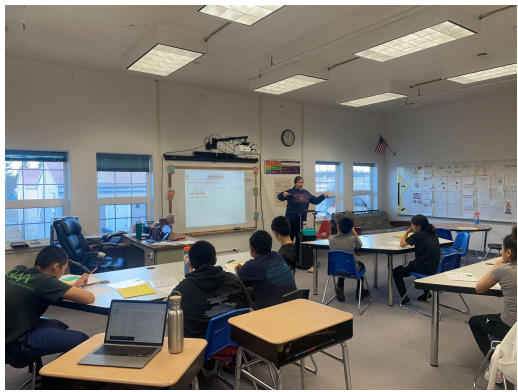

Students using art to meet science standards.

Whole group math lesson.

More math

Teacher supported centers.

Individual online work.

Individual online work.

Personnel Update

We are very appreciative of Seth Klossner our tutor. He has done a great job supporting our reading intervention.

Newhalen School is currently looking for one upper elementary position.

Classroom Highlights

(Place based projects highlighted, focus on literacy, support received, etc)

LSAC Activity
LSAC met on Feb 24th and is planing to meet in March to discuss the 25/26 calendar.
Community Engagement
Huge shout out to the community for hosting an outstanding carnival. It was a great event for the kids to be active in the middle of February.
Professional Development
PLC meetings have been great we are beginning our shift to prep for state testing currently.
Pupil % Attendance K-12
Newhalen School has a 94.2% attendance rate for the month of February.
Student and Staff Safety
Focus on student safety has been centered around student dressing for the weather and travel.
Other