	Note	E: For information related to the selection process and ac- counting of instructional materials, as this term is defined by state law and rule, see CMD and EFA.
	for s vers siona use i tions	District shall provide a wide range of instructional resources tudents and faculty that present varying levels of difficulty, di- ity of appeal, and a variety of points of view. Although profes- al staff members may select instructional resources for their in accordance with District policy and administrative regula- s, the ultimate authority for determining and approving the cur- um and instructional program of the District lies with the Board.
Objectives	In this policy, "instructional resources" may include textbooks, li- brary acquisitions, supplementary resources for classroom use, and any other instructional resources, including electronic re- sources, used for formal or informal teaching and learning purpos- es. The primary objectives of instructional resources are to imple- ment, enrich, and support the District's educational program.
	The Board shall rely on District professional staff to select and ac- quire instructional resources that:
	1.	Enrich and support the curriculum, taking into consideration students' varied interests, abilities, learning styles, and maturity levels.
	2.	Stimulate growth in factual knowledge, enjoyment of reading, literary appreciation, aesthetic values, and societal standards.
	3.	Present various sides of controversial issues so that students have an opportunity to develop, under guidance, skills in criti- cal analysis and in making informed judgments in their daily lives.
	4.	Represent many ethnic, religious, and cultural groups and their contributions to the national heritage and world community.
	5.	Provide a wide range of background information that will ena- ble students to make intelligent judgments in their daily lives.
Selection Criteria	In the selection of instructional resources, professional staff shall ensure that the resources:
	1.	Support and are consistent with the general educational goals of the state and District and the aims and objectives of indi- vidual schools and specific courses consistent with the District and campus improvement plans.

	2.	Meet high standards for artistic quality and/or literary style, authenticity, educational significance, factual content, physical format, presentation, readability, and technical quality.
	3.	Are appropriate for the subject area and for the age, ability level, learning styles, and social and emotional development of the students for whom they are selected.
	4.	Are designed to help students gain an awareness of our plu- ralistic society.
	5.	Are designed to provide information that will motivate stu- dents and staff to examine their own attitudes and behavior; to understand their duties, responsibilities, rights, and privi- leges as citizens participating in our society; and to make in- formed choices in their daily lives.
	6.	For library selections, are integral to the instructional program, are appropriate for the reading levels and understanding of students, reflect the interests and needs of the students and faculty, are included because of their literary or artistic value and merit, and present information with the greatest degree of accuracy and clarity.
	per: reco tion	Administrators, teachers, library media specialists, other District personnel, parents, and community members, as appropriate, may recommend instructional resources for selection. Gifts of instruc- tional resources shall be evaluated according to these criteria and accepted or rejected in accordance with CDC(LOCAL).
	mo۱	ection of resources is an ongoing process that includes the re- val of resources no longer appropriate and the periodic re- cement or repair of resources that still have educational value.
Controversial Issues	colle rese clar lyzir on r [See	rict professional staff shall endeavor to maintain a balanced ection representing various views when selecting instructional burces on controversial issues. Resources shall be chosen to ify historical and contemporary forces by presenting and ana- ng intergroup tension and conflict objectively, placing emphasis ecognizing and understanding social and economic problems. e also EMB regarding instruction about controversial issues and AA regarding human sexuality instruction.]
Challenged Resources	den	arent of a District student, any employee, or any District resi- t may formally challenge an instructional resource used in the rict's educational program on the basis of appropriateness.
Informal Reconsideration	The school receiving a complaint about the appropriateness of an instructional resource shall try to resolve the matter informally using the following procedure:
DATE ISSUED: 5/24/2017 2 of 4

	1.	The principal or designee shall explain the school's selection process, the criteria for selection, and the qualifications of the professional staff who selected the questioned resource.
	2.	The principal or designee shall explain the intended educa- tional purpose of the resource and any additional information regarding its use.
	3.	If appropriate, the principal or designee may offer a con- cerned parent an alternative instructional resource to be used by that parent's child in place of the challenged resource.
	4.	If the complainant wishes to make a formal challenge, the principal or designee shall provide the complainant a copy of this policy and a form to request a formal reconsideration of the resource.
Formal Reconsideration	A complainant shall make any formal objection to an instructional resource on the form provided by the District and shall submit the completed and signed form to the principal. Upon receipt of the form, the principal shall appoint a reconsideration committee.
	The reconsideration committee shall include at least one member of the instructional staff who has experience using the challenged resource with students or is familiar with the challenged resource's content. Other members of the committee may include District- level staff, library staff, secondary-level students, parents, and any other appropriate individuals.
	in its mee the p prep	nembers of the committee shall review the challenged resource s entirety. As soon as reasonably possible, the committee shall t and determine whether the challenged resource conforms to principles of selection set out in this policy. The committee shall bare a written report of its findings and provide copies to the cipal, the Superintendent or designee, and the complainant.
Appeal	com	complainant may appeal the decision of the reconsideration mittee in accordance with appropriate complaint policies, start- vith the appropriate administrator. [See DGBA, FNG, and GF]
Guiding Principles	The following principles shall guide the Board and staff in respond- ing to challenges of instructional resources:
	1.	A complainant may raise an objection to an instructional re- source used in a school's educational program, despite the fact that the professional staff selecting the resources were qualified to make the selection, followed the proper proce- dure, and adhered to the objectives and criteria for instruc- tional resources set out in this policy.

- 2. A parent's ability to exercise control over reading, listening, or viewing matter extends only to his or her own child.
- 3. Access to a challenged resource shall not be restricted during the reconsideration process, except the District may deny access to a child if requested by the child's parent.

The major criterion for the final decision on challenged resources is the appropriateness of the resource for its intended educational use. No challenged instructional resource shall be removed solely because of the ideas expressed therein.