Jorge Vera
City Councilman
District 7
Laredo, TX

Dear Mr. Vera:

First, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your part in contributing to our cause at George Washington M.S. in supporting our students in being bully free. "Meet in the Middle" & "Erase the R-word" are two Special Olympic outreach projects in the school district which promotes acceptance, friendship, and respect. The outreach projects are being brought together to bring in a motivational speaker from Austin, TX, known as Fabian Ramirez.

Fabian Ramirez is a well known motivational speaker having held many seminars in middle schools and high schools throughout North Texas. His seminars grab student's attention with his humor, student participation, and his personal experience with bullying, and how he had to overcome it. He goes on saying how he feels its' his role to act as a "big brother" to the students because he sees himself in every single one of them; he takes on this role in hoping that if he can reach one kid, he can reach an entire generation. We believe he will make a great impact on our students and with your contribution made out to the GWMS Tomorrow's Teachers Club we can make it happen.

I am looking forward to your response!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Gladys Garza
