HES HOSTS SOUTHWEST LITERACY COOPERATIVE EVENT: Homedale Elementary School was thrilled to welcome five rural elementary schools from the area to our school on Wednesday, January 25th as part of the Southwest Literacy Cooperative, an initiative HES has been a part of for the past two years. The SWLC is led by Dr. Marybeth Flachbart and Rosie Santana and includes elementary schools from Weiser, Payette, Parma, and Fruitland. More than 50 teachers and administrators came to HES to participate in Instructional Rounds, or Learning Walks. All participants had an opportunity to observe EVERY classroom for 10-15 minutes and then provide helpful feedback to our staff. Our teachers and staff did an outstanding job and received some incredible feedback and admiration from some of our neighbor schools! It was a wonderful, worthwhile experience for all schools involved!
