Hi Susan,

I was told this morning that Karen Justice will also be attending the AVID National Conference, so we will need another Board Request for herself.

Please use 230.2240.0342.100.330.000 for Karen's travel.

Just like the others, she will fly out the evening of 12/9 and return in the late afternoon of 12/12. The only food that is served by AVID is the breakfast on 12/12.

Here are some other details:

- Registration is paid by AVID
- Hotel is paid by AVID
- Flight & Per Diem is paid by us (Title IIA - see above budget code)

I have attached the conference detail sheet. Let me know if you need anything else from me.

Thanks!

About the Conference

We have the strategies you NEED to ensure your students are ready for and thrive in college. Sessions will focus on a variety of topics, including:

- Implementing and Sustaining the AVID College Readiness System \(ACRS\)
- AVID and Advanced Programs \(AP®, IB®, AICE, dual enrollment\)
- Engaging and Supporting AVID Alumni
- Leadership for College Readiness
- Schoolwide Strategies for Increasing Rigor and Support for All Students
- STEM Initiatives
- Equity and Access

Keynote Speakers

Opening Keynote by Mary Catherine Swanson
AVID Founder

Mary Catherine Swanson taught high school English for 20 years. During that time she was instrumental in developing numerous award-winning language arts programs. In 1980 she developed AVID, a secondary school program which prepares underachieving students for four-year college entry. Today 95 percent of AVID graduates enroll in college. Mary Catherine created the AVID Center in 1992 to support the in-school system.

Among the awards and recognition Mary Catherine has received are the A+ Award for Reaching the Goals of America 2000 from the U.S. Department of Education; the EXCEL Award for Excellence in Teaching; the Salute to Excellence from the American Association for Higher Education; the Headliner of the Year from the San Diego Press Club; Cable's Leaders in Learning Award for General Excellence, a recognition of her innovative leadership; University of San Diego Remarkable Leader in Education; and University of California Outstanding Alumnus.

CNN/Time Magazine named her America's Best Teacher in 2001, and she was one of three 2001 recipients of the Harold W. McGraw, Jr. Prize in Education. She is listed in Who's Who in America and has been the commencement speaker at numerous universities, earning three honorary doctorates.

Swanson is the only public school teacher ever to have won the $50,000 award for Pioneering Achievement in Education from the Charles A. Dana Foundation in New York. In presenting that award, the Foundation cited her for "heeding the teacher's calling at the highest level of professional dedication in developing AVID, an imaginative restructuring of the school day that has given thousands of students the skills, support, and guidance that they need to fulfill their potential—far too tragically overlooked—to prepare for a college education."

Keynote by Dr. Pedro Noguera
Peter L. Agnew Professor of Education at New York University

Dr. Noguera is a sociologist whose scholarship and research focus on the ways in which schools are influenced by social and economic conditions, as well as by demographic trends in local, regional, and global contexts. Dr. Noguera holds faculty appointments in the departments of Teaching and Learning and Humanities and Social Sciences at the Steinhart School of Culture, Education, and Human Development. He also serves as an affiliated faculty member in NYU's Department of Sociology. Dr. Noguera is the executive director of the Metropolitan Center for Urban Education and the co-director of the Institute for the Study of Globalization and Education in Metropolitan Settings (IGEMS). From 2008-2011, he was an appointee of the governor of New York to the State University of New York (SUNY) Board of Trustees.

Dr. Noguera received his bachelor's degree in Sociology and History and a teaching credential from Brown University in 1981 and earned his master's degree in Sociology from Brown in 1982. Dr. Noguera earned his doctorate in Sociology from the University of California at Berkeley in 1989. He was a classroom teacher in public schools in Providence, RI, and Oakland, CA, and continues to work with schools nationally and internationally as a researcher and advisor. He has held tenured faculty appointments at the Harvard Graduate School of Education (2000-2003), where he was named the Judith K. Dimon Professor of Communities and Schools, and at the University of California, Berkeley (1990-2000), where he was also the director of the Institute for the Study of Social Change.

Hi there-

The topic came up to me today, and so I wanted to inform you of what I know and have budgeted for National Conference. We would need a travel request for:

Annette Sweeney (Presenting)
Whitney Alfrey (Presenting)
Molly Ouche (I think AVID is paying)
HS Teacher TBA
HS Teacher TBA
Dave Richardson
Me (I may not go if I don't have to go... I'll find out from AVID)

I know Karen may have plans for her and a board member, but I would not be using Title IIA to pay for it, so it would be paid for in a different way.

It's okay to proceed with this travel request since we are likely to get much better plane tickets (cost wise) if we can do it sooner than later.

Thank you,
Michael

Hi Susan,

Please use Title IIA Code: 230.2240.0342.100.330.000 for Per Diem & Travel.

Looks like they will need to fly out the evening of 12/9 and return in the late afternoon of 12/12. The only food that is served by AVID is the breakfast on 12/12.

I have attached the conference detail sheet. Let me know if you need anything else from me.

Thanks!
