Item Title:

Recognition of Salvador Vazquez, 4th grade Bilingual student at Price Elementary for excelling in art as demonstrated in "Este es mi Mexico" Art Contest.

Description:

The Mexican Government promotes various initiatives to strengthen the links of Mexicans living in other countries. One of these initiatives is an Annual Children's Drawing Contest called "Este es mi Mexico", "This is my Mexico" which was created in 1997. This contest promotes children's sense of identity and pride in the Mexican culture.

Salvador Vazquez Pulido, fourth Bilingual grade student at Price, won Honorable Mention in the Annual Children's Drawing contest "This is My Mexico" that the Government of Mexico promotes through its 50 consulates and embassies worldwide .There were thousands of entries from the US, Canada, Europe, etc.

Salvador's drawing is included in a calendar and will be exhibited at the Museo Caracol in the Galeria de Historia in Chapultepec, Mexico City.

District Goal:

Goal 2 We will develop a strong support system offering opportunities across the curriculum to create an innovative school experience, teaching students to value their education and motivate them to achieve excellence.

INVITATION

Mountains, jungles, cities, towns, archaeological sites and beaches. Do you have a favorite place in Mexico? Do you want to know more about Mexico? This is your chance!

Have you ever been there? What have your parents, your family, friends or your teachers told you about our beautiful country? With imagination and fantasy, you can use a drawing to express your favorite place in Mexico and what Mexico means to you.

Choose your favorite place. Where is it located? You can be inspired by history, culture, art, food, natural wealth, people, traditional festivities... We invite you to look through your books, in the library, on the internet or on sites that you prefer.

What are you waiting for? Capture your favorite place in Mexico in a drawing. Use your imagination and get to know Mexico.

Participate and tell us!
What do you need to participate?

You must be between 7 and 11 years old and live outside Mexico (of any nationality).

You must create your art on a square piece of paper (30 cm x 30 cm or 12" x 12"). You can use brushes, pencils, acrylics, water paints, crayons, or whatever other drawing technique inspires you.

In your drawing, capture everything that you remember of your visit to Mexico, what your favorite site is, or what you have learned about Mexico.

Remember to choose your favorite place in Mexico.
Sign and date your drawing!

For teachers, parents and children:

The Institute for Mexicans Abroad and the Embassy / Consulate of Mexico in:

appreciates your support in promoting children participation and their understanding of the topic of this drawing contest "My favorite place in Mexico".

To participate in the contest, you must complete your registration form and stick it on the back of your drawing. It is very important that all your information is complete or you could be eliminated from the contest.

The child should name the drawing and write a brief description of it. The drawing must be sent to the Institute for Mexicans Abroad, through the Mexican Embassy / Consulate by September 21, 2015.

A jury of specialists in children's artistic expression from the Program "Alas y Raíces" from CONACULTA will select the 10 winning drawings.

The results will be announced on October 30 through the Mexican Embassy / Consulate as well as in www.ime.gob.mx @IME_SRE, #EsteEsMiMéxico.

The winners will receive a package of Mexican literature books for children, a diploma and a surprise gift.

All participants will receive a diploma and their artwork may be part of an exhibit which will travel around the world, even if their drawing did not win.

Artists pay close attention!

Drawings that are copied, traced or where the help of an adult is evident will not be able to participate in the contest. Drawings left unfinished, with missing information or that are smaller/bigger than the indicated measures (30 x 30 cm or 12"x12") will be disqualified.

All the rights of use and reproduction of the received drawings will be granted to the IME that could use them for promotional purposes.

Any situation not contemplated in the existing contest will be resolved by the Institute for Mexicans Abroad.
