

GDLB SUPPORT STAFF MEETINGS

Purposeful staff meetings develop cohesiveness by promoting job growth through group communication. Division/departmental/school meetings will be held before school starts each year. All support staff employees will attend these meetings in their respective schools/departments/divisions. The meeting will be held not only to welcome personnel to the District, but also to discuss goals of support staff personnel for the year and District goals as they pertain to support staff personnel.

Thereafter, meetings will be held regularly in all schools/departments/division. Through such meetings the staff is given an opportunity to receive and understand administrative procedures, to discuss new ideas, to exchange findings, and to become familiar with the aims and purposes of the philosophy of the school/department/division for the continuing improvement of all school operations and facilities.
