

...the educational prism through which students realize meaning and purpose in their lives...

TO: Members, Board of Education
Dr. Constance Collins, Superintendent

FROM: Kevin M. Anderson, Ed.D.

RE: Atomic Learning Online Professional Development Programs

DATE: May 25, 2010

The following report outlines an online professional development package from Atomic Learning that the District is proposing for purchase to meet teacher and student technology literacy and integration needs. The cost of the annual subscription is $12, 228.40, with funding coming from the Professional Development allocation of the District Technology Plan.

