Msha The Five Stages of Board Development Deforming Termination The process of unforming" the group, that is, letting go of the group structure and moving on Performing Productivity Forming The group practices its craft Orientation and becomes effective in The droup comes meeting its objectives together and gets to initially know one another and form as droup а Norming Storming Resolution Eventually agreement Dissatisfaction reached on how the group Might be chaotic- vying for operates leadership and trialing of group processes

© 2021 Minnesota School Boards Association. All rights reserved. Permission required for reprints and revisions.