

This district will not allow student athletes to participate in any interscholastic athletic program without insurance coverage and the written permission of the parent/guardian. Before engaging in practice sessions or athletic events, the following must occur:

1. Each student must provide written proof of health insurance.
2. The parent/guardian must give permission for the student athlete to participate in the athletic program.

This district does not assume any financial responsibility for medical or hospital expenses incurred because of athletic injuries. Athletes participate at their own risk.
