Dear Mike and Staff,

I hope this message finds you well. It is with sincere regret that I submit my resignation from my position as Behavioral Interventionist at Montabella.

Due to changes in my personal business, the demands on my time this upcoming school year have increased significantly compared to last year. After much thought, efforts to rectify and consideration, I have come to the difficult decision that I will be unable to return and give the role the full attention and dedication it deserves.

Working with the students and staff has been incredibly rewarding, and I am truly grateful for the opportunity to have been part of such a supportive and committed team. I am proud of the relationships built and the progress we made together in fostering a positive school environment.

Thank you for your understanding and support. I hope to stay connected and wish continued success to you and the entire school community. This was truly a difficult decision because of you, the kids, and the staff. As I mentioned in my end-of-the-year discussion with Mike, I hope that I have made a positive and lasting impact on the community.

With great regret,

Coach Tom Creguer
