Rev. Dr. Dawn Darwin Weaks heard her calling to ministry at youth camp. She pursued God's call as she received her B.A. from Baylor University, her M. Div. from Brite Divinity School at Texas Christian University, and her D.Min. from St. Paul School of Theology. She was ordained in the Southern Baptist church and served as an associate minister in that denomination before becoming a Disciples of Christ minister in 1999. She pastored churches in Miami, Texas, in Rowlett, Texas, where she was a Bethany Fellow, and in Raytown, Missouri. She is now the co-pastor of First Christian Church in Odessa, Texas, with her husband, Rev. Dr. Joe Weaks. Dawn is a frequent keynote at events nationwide, and you can find her writing published in a variety of venues. Currently, she is writing about how adults with no church background hear sermons. Dawn has three passions: her family, her relationship with God, and helping others hear and live out the calling God gives to them.
