Success ~ Success ~ Success

The Academic Enhancement Program at Illinois Valley High School has been recovering credits and finishing classes at a record high pace. Just 11 weeks into the school year we have finished 189 classes, transcribed 92.75 credits, credentialed three GED students and graduated one. This success comes from a lot of factors: we are supported by all of the administration staff in the Three Rivers School District, we have a great environment for students to be successful and our staff cares about all of our students.

The students we support come into our class and give us what they have for effort each and every day. They sit down and go to work without anyone saying anything but “I’m glad you made it today.” Our motto is “We will meet you where you are each day!” We appreciate the progress our students are making—as I wrote this message, I’ve already had to change the numbers three times because students were finishing classes as fast as they could.

We are also called Southern Oregon Success Academy West campus. We have students who are credit deficient, students with discipline problems in the regular school setting, students from IVHS who just need a class and GED students. With this mixed bag, we are super successful and very proud of our accomplishments.

Indian Education

The Native American Student Union (NASU) of Three Rivers School District welcomes you!

The Native American Student Union is a multiethnic group comprised of self-identifying Alaskan Native, Native American and American Indian students. NASU assists American Indian, Alaskan Natives, and Indigenous Peoples in maintaining cultural values and awareness while pursuing their educational goals. NASU emphasizes supportive, safe spaces for Native American youth to allow confidence in their identity, to share, learn and grow. It is a space for students to fight racial anxieties such as feeling unseen at school and identity switching between home and school. It is very important that Indigenous communities as well as the majority population understand the history, living cultures, contributions, and the issues that indigenous people of this land are facing.

“Collective action is one of the purposes of affinity groups in schools: they allow students who share an identity - usually a marginalized identity - to gather, talk in a safe space about issues related to that identity, and transfer that discussion into action that makes for a more equitable experience at school.” *Making Space, Monita K. Bell

Join us to explore our common indigenous roots, celebrate and amplify the strength and beauty of our respective cultures, and work together to support each other in a safe and vibrant community through conversation, education, action, games, art, and opportunities to have our voices heard.

The Three Rivers NASU is your organization. Your journey and participation are important. We celebrate diversity, identity, equity, resistance, and resilience. We look forward to meeting you!
