Browning High School
2016-2017 Club Proposal

Human Rights Club

Advisor: Amy Conrey Andreas

Goals:

1. The Human Rights Club will prepare our youth to be global citizens equipped with human rights knowledge.
2. The Human Rights Club will allow students to engage with historical and present-day issues and to organize for social change.
3. The Human Rights Club will highlight how individuals and communities all over the world are fighting for their rights everyday.
4. The Human Rights Club will be a venue for students interested in local and global issues to learn about universally agreed upon principles that guarantee basic dignity and rights to and for all people.
5. The Human Rights Club will help build empathy for others, foster solidarity and spark a lifetime of activism for positive social change.

Proposed Meeting Dates:

The club will meet every other Monday throughout the year (September-May). Meetings will take place in the library Makerspace.

Summary of Proposed Club Activities:

The Human Rights Club will be involved in distance learning activities with the Sidwell Friends School in Washington, D.C. It is our hope that our work with the Sidwell Friends School will help bridge students from two different communities, united in the desire to secure human rights for all people, everywhere.

Lesson plans, possible activities, and links to other human rights resources can be found at Teaching Tolerance.com.

Fundraising:

Money will need to be raised for possible student travel opportunities. Candy Sales, Crowdfunder Funding, Coffee Sales in conjunction with the BHS Library Club, concessions.

Club Name: BHS Makerspace/Coding Club

Sponsors: Travis Miller (Main Sponsor-Stipend to be paid to Mr. Miller)
Amy Andreas (Co-Sponsor, no stipend)

Club Goals:

1. Help students to become producers, not just consumers, of technology
2. Students learn, both formally and informally, discovering new things about science, engineering and more.
3. Students will gain skills as creativity, problem solving, and collaboration, and they're having fun while doing it.

Proposed Meeting Dates: Tuesdays after school

Summary of Proposed Club Activities: Students will meet and work on various projects and learning activities throughout the year. All meeting will take place in the BHS Library Makerspace.

Club Name: BHS BAWAP club

Sponsors: Travis Miller

Club Goals:

1. To develop resiliency factors by getting students outside.
2. To foster leadership and mentoring relationship between high school students and middle school students.
3. To provide outdoor educational experience and training to students who would like to be outside.

Proposed Meeting Dates: Bimonthly after school and periodically for trips

Summary of Proposed Club Activities:

Students will plan and participate in activities outside possibly including but not limited to hiking, skiing, rafting, fishing, and camping. They will have the opportunity to receive first aid and cpr training. They will be encouraged to help out with the summer BAWAP program for middle schoolers. While the exact aim and goals of this course may change due to the students taking a role in planning events of the club but the overall goal of getting students outdoors to improve their lives and others will be a core value of this club.
