Blind Department Bullying Report for 2024-2025

There was (1) documented incident of suspected bullying at the Arkansas School for the Blind for 2024-25. The incident occurred on 3/3/2025/ There was a dispute at the breakfast table where everyone sits regarding adding a person to the table. Student A began arguing with Student B, finishing the conversation with “I don’t give a care.” It was later told that the Student A had been telling others that Student B couldn’t sing after she had performed at the Black History Assembly. Both students were counseled, followed by expectations. Student A apologized to Student B. No other incidents were documented.
