

Track Proposal

Background:

The state of the track is reaching the status of being a safety concern. In talking to other superintendents and construction companies, it is recommended that we work with an engineer to complete this project because it is a complete rebuild. The engineer will take care of geological surveys to make sure that the new track will last and only need resurfacing and not a complete redo in the future.

Recommended Action:

I recommend approving the engineering proposal for the track.