The thing I like most about CCS is...

18 responses

My child is able to do his schoolwork at home, which is where I want him, when he wants, at a speed that he wants, and has teachers he can reach out to if/when he needs help.

You like me son feels comfortable with the online courses.

The staff. They are so encouraging.

The caring staff for online program all teachers included. They actually care and help.

The flexibility

It is very user friendly and is a great place! So glad we made the transition to this school!

Being online and Mitch has been a blessing. He has helped my student in every way and every path.

They put my daughters mental health first and her learning.

My child is happy here

My child can work on school when he chooses

I like that the teachers and staff are helpful and accommodating

My son's new enjoyment for school

The involvement from learning coach, social worker, teachers.... Is the best thing. My daughter feels cared about by adults that aren't family for the first time ever and it means the world to me.

You can choose which class to start your day/night with.

Always willing to help

Always willing to help or give advice to put you in the right direction

The flexibility and support.

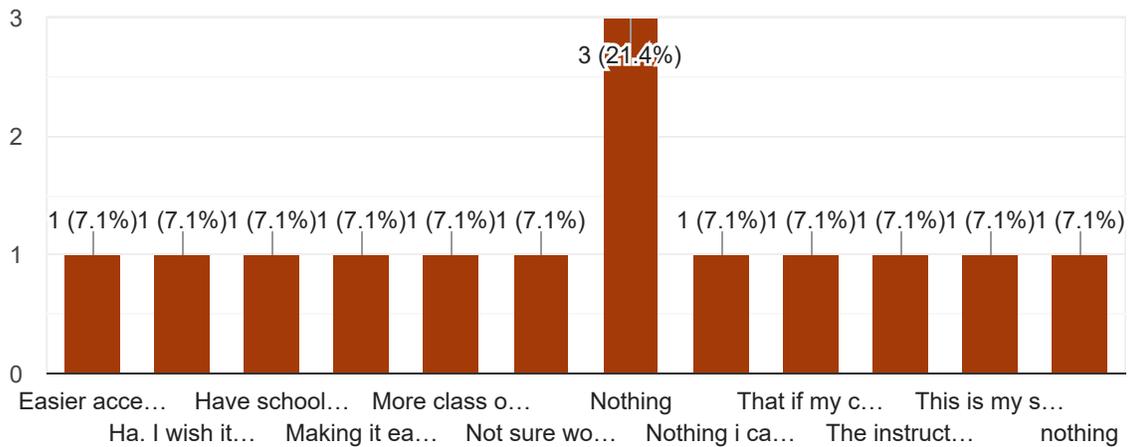

The independence and confidence to be in his own space and learn better skills to grow
