BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Type: Consent

As the Board has the ability to review and adjust its local policy at any time, and as Administration identifies opportunities and/or receives guidance from TASB to adjust policy in accord with standard practices, local policy revisions and updates are advisable both at the time of a scheduled TASB update and as needed by the district.

The policy revisions and/or additions recommended by Administration by receipt of this consent agenda item signifies the latter circumstance: An opportunity for local policy revision at this time.

RECOMMENDATION:

Administration is recommending that local policy FDA be revised related to resident students who become nonresidents during a nine-week grading period, and that the Board adopt a CW local policy that aligns with existing regulation (procedures) within the district as it pertains to the naming of facilities. Recommendations / edits are outlined in the comparison documents attached.

FINANCIAL IMPACT AMOUNT AND FUNDING SOURCE (IF APPLICABLE):

BOARD RELATED POLICY:

FDA(LOCAL) - Revision

CW(LOCAL) - Addition

ACTION ITEM SUGGESTED MOTION (if applicable):

That the board accept the recommendation from Administration to: (a) Revise Board Policy FDA-LOCAL that governs the status of a resident student who becomes a nonresident during the course of a nine-week grading period; and (b) Add Policy CW-LOCAL to provide greater public awareness regarding the district's internal regulation that outlines the guidelines and criteria for the naming of facilities in G-PISD.
