

Leading Learning Award November 2025

Adonia Conrad

"Adonia is my Road Supervisor. I would like to nominate her for going above and beyond at what she does every day. Adonia is the perfect example of a great team member and I am happy to work with her, she has provided excellent support when there have been situations on the bus and she has given wonderful advice to make for smoother rides with the students.

Matt Reda

Matt Reda is an outstanding example of a teacher who truly cares about his students. As both an English Instructor with Myschool@Kent and as a GED Instructor with the Adult Ed program, he shows a genuine interest in getting to know his students. He does this by asking questions, establishing relationships and supporting their needs. He can often be seen initiating conversations and offering thoughtful assistance even if it is outside of standard norms. He doesn't hesitate to adjust lesson plans or provide added support which gives the students a better chance to succeed. There is no doubt that Matt exemplifies a sincerity and makes a difference for all of his students!
